

Lynnies song

By Jennifer Kalkhoven

Sparkles and magic
And making dreams come true
Messages and checking in
And loving what you do

Aqua and gold
Dancing and singing too
These are all the things
That make me think of you

*This is your song
An honor to you
I love who are
I admire all you do*

*So please never think
You're less than you are
This life is your stage
And you are the star
You are a star*

Tarot cards and angels
Acknowledging what we do
Echoes in the hallway and compliments so true

Empowering and kind and transformational too
These are all the things
that make me think of you

*This is your song
An honor to you
I love who are
I admire all you do*

*So please never think
You're less than you are
This life is your stage
And you are the star
You are a star*

END:

I know im not perfect
But I owe a lot to you
I have a lot of challenges

That you saw right through

*You believed in me
And guided me along
You are my guardian angel
And you deserve this song*

*So please never think
You're less than you are
